

SCOTT INTRODUCES BILL TO RESUME ARMS SHIPMENT TO TURKEY

Feb. 27 (IPS)-- Senate Republican leader Hugh Scott (R-Pa.) introduced a bill yesterday allowing President Ford to resume military aid to Turkey.

WALL STREET JOURNAL LIES SET THE STAGE FOR WAR AGAINST IRAQ

Feb. 27 (IPS)-- In the latest series of CIA-planted press slanders against the pro-Soviet socialist government of Iraq, today's Wall Street Journal claims that Iraq has expansionist designs against Iran and Kuwait.

IRAQ CHARGES SYRIA AIDS KURDS

Feb. 27 (IPS)-- Agents of the Syrian Intelligence Service are actively aiding the CIA-instigated rebellion of Kurdish tribesmen in Northern Iraq, according to reports in the pro-Iraq newspaper Beirut cited by Washington Post writer Jim Hoagland today.

FRANCE TO SELL ARMS TO TURKEY

Feb. 27 (IPS)--Following a major arms deal with Greece, France is to engage in supplying armaments to Turkey as well, joining West Germany in the Kissinger plan for a new Mideast flareup. Le Monde reported Feb. 26 that French Foreign Minister Sauvagnargues flatly declared in Greece that "it is not impossible that conversations are going on between the Turkish government and French (arms) suppliers. We will act to prevent these contacts from having bad consequences on the political level."

SYRIA, PLO WAR-MONGERING OVER SADAT-KISSINGER COLLABORATION

March 2 (IPS)-- Syria and the CIA-controlled Palestine Liberation Organization attacked Secretary of State Kissinger and warned Egyptian President Anwar Sadat about the dangers of a partial settlement with Israel in an effort to use the Kissinger-Sadat collaboration as an issue to stir up arab nationalist frenzy.

SECOND INTERNATIONAL AND ITALIAN COMMUNIST PARTY MOVE BEHIND ROCKEFELLER FASCISM

WAR GAMES IN STOCKHOLM TO "PREVENT A COUP D'ETAT"

Feb. 26 (IPS)-- A front-page photograph in the conservative Stockholm daily, Svenska Dagbladet, Feb. 24, shows a Swedish army recruit poised with a machine gun, falling on the pavement of a quiet residential street in the heart of the city. The accompanying article by John Tunsberger, who recently warned Swedes of an imminent Soviet invasion, mentions that the tasks of the army have changed from guarding harbors...now the tasks have expanded to cover the mission of preventing a coup d'etat in that city.

CIA FORMS COUNTERGANG TO PCF FARMER ORGANIZING

Feb. 26 (IPS)-- To counteract the stepped-up mobilization of the French Communist Party and its farmer organization, MODEF, to organize desperate farmers and peasant layers into a programmatic thrust with the French working class, counter-insurgents from the CIA-infiltrated union, the CFDT, have formed a new organization called MONATRA. The CFDT is affiliated with the French Socialist Party.

GISCARD MEETS WITH AGENT DEFERRE

Feb. 27 (IPS)-- The France Inter Radio station reported today that French President Giscard d'Estaing has left Paris for an unexpected visit with long-time agent and socialist party leader Gaston Deferre in Marseille. The object of the visit is not formally known, but may involve discussion of two burning topics: the immigrant worker question, and the redeployment of the French navy to the Mediterranean in anticipation of a renewed Mideast war. Marseille is strategically located to prevent inflows of "illegal" immigrants from North Africa as well as to monitor major naval/military moves in the Mediterranean.

CIA AGENT AMENDOLA PUSHES TOWARD LAMALFA

Feb. 27 (IPS)-- With the imminent historic compromise of the Italian Communist Party (PCI) and the Christian Democratic Party, the PCI press Unita, controlled by CIA agent Amendola is revealing its connections to known Rockefeller agents. Reporting on the recent statement of Republican party head La Malfa on possible support for the "historic compromise," Unita today launched an all-out defense of La Malfa's, describing criticism of him as akin to a McCarthyite witch hunt.

CIA-RUN PCI AGREES TO SECRET DISCUSSION OF NATO BILL

Feb. 28 (IPS)-- Unita, the newspaper of the Italian Communist Party (PCI) controlled by CIA agent Amendola disclosed Feb. 27 that the PCI has agreed that discussion on the NATO-inspired bill to give the Italian Navy new ships to the tune of 1,000 billion lire not be conducted openly in parliament. The proposal has thus been transferred from parliament to the closed Defense Commission of the Chamber. According to Italian parliamentary custom, the bill will become law without ever coming to a vote, provided PCI deputies who compose more than 20 per cent of the Defense Commission do not object!

Unita says: "The communists (they mean the PCI) did not oppose that decision, though stressing their criticisms and their reservations on the measure, such as it has been conceived, to which the PCI deputies will present few, but essential modifying amendments."

FRANCO TO FALL THIS YEAR, SAYS ANTI-SOVIET, SPANISH CP LEADER

March 1 (IPS)-- Santiago Carrillo, general secretary of the anti-soviet faction of the Spanish Communist Party, claimed that the Franco regime in Spain is ceding and will probably fall this year, in an interview with the Yugoslav press agency Tanjug. According to a United Press International dispatch yesterday, Carrillo specifically stated that the regime will fall under the pressure of a "democratic junta" popular front coalition formed last summer and led jointly by Calvo Serer of the ultra-reactionary Opus Dei.

ITALIAN CP PRESENTS CORPORATIVIST SCHEME TO EUROPEAN CP AUTO SECTOR MEETING

March 1 (IPS)-- The Italian Communist Party (PCI) delegates to a conference of European communist parties on the crisis of the auto sector yesterday in Dusseldorf, West Germany, presented a plan for "industrial reconversion" of the auto industry on a European-wide, corporativist basis. The Italian plan, reports the PCI daily Unita, today, was put forward by PCI delegate Libertini who has been involved in setting up the "reconversion" program at the Italian Fiat plants.

THEO SOMMER: SCHMIDT THE GREATEST, ELECTIONS DON'T MATTER

March 2 (IPS)-- Theo Sommer, Nato and Trilateral Commission spokesman, writing in this week's Die Welt, called West German Chancellor Helmut Schmidt "the best chancellor we ever had." Whether Schmidt remains in the leadership or not depends very little on popular support within West Germany, Sommer stated. In fact, he says it would make no difference if the Social Democratic Party lost the state elections in North Rhine Westphalia, because legislatures have no function "in this government epoch."
