

NSIPS: Are you aware of the U.S. Labor Party and its claim that the government runs the terrorists?

Yarborough: I am well aware of the U.S. Labor Party! They are a group of agitators. Ask Marius Livingston of Glassboro State College in New Jersey about that group. They conducted a bona fide marxist disruption of a conference at Glassboro a few months ago. They broke up every conference seminar under the cover of being legitimate conference participants. It was a very sophisticated job. The Labor Party is not like the Weathermen. They keep their jackets and ties on all the time. But like every overt Marxist group since the time of Lenin, they have underground terrorist networks. I'm sure they do.

Win 'TRO' In Philly

Labor Party Scores Legal Victories Against IPS Terrorists

PHILADELPHIA, July 2 (NSIPS) — The U.S. Labor Party won a Temporary Restraining Order (TRO) against the terrorist Revolutionary Union and "Rich-Off-Our-Backs" Coalition, controlled by the Institute for Policy Studies, in the Eastern District Court here today. In a closely related case strengthened by this victory, a Federal judge, in the same court today, scheduled hearings for next week on a USLP suit for a similar TRO against the "right wing" of the Institute-Justice Department conspiracy against Constitutional government in the United States.

Originally filed in Federal Court in Pittsburgh where Judge R. Marsh held an all-day hearing June 24, the latter suit names Attorney General Edward Levi, FBI Director Clarence Kelley and operatives of the Treasury Department's Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms Division as defendants. The suit declares a state of emergency to exist following a death threat against USLP witness and member Scott Thompson, and an attempted assassination of former National Security Council agent Roy Frankhouser, a hostile witness for the USLP regarding Justice Dept.-ATF control of deployments of "far right" hoodlums and killers against USLP electoral candidates and organizers.

Philly Case

In today's RU case, Federal District Judge Cahn granted an order restraining RU from attacking, harassing or depriving Labor Party members of constitutional rights to free speech and assembly, due process, and equal protection of the law. The TRO names the RU, the Revolutionary Communist Party, Rich-Off-Our-Backs, United Workers Organizing Committee, Philadelphia RU leader Ernie Douglas, and eleven other individuals.

At the hearing's start, however, Judge Cahn indicated that he would not grant the USLP's request that the TRO also bar the Philadelphia Police Department's "Civil Disobedience Squad" headed by Lt. George Fencel from conspiring with the RU and other defendants against the USLP's rights, and from deliberately refraining from enforcement of the law during RU's conspicuous violent interference with USLP organizing and electoral campaigning.

Fencel and his faction of policemen watched as Ernie Douglas led an assault by half a dozen RU zombies on USLP Congressional candidate Steve Douglas on June 2. Fencel has also consistently defied the wishes of Philadelphia Mayor Rizzo that the RU-Coalition's planned violent counter-demonstration against the city's July 4 Bicentennial festivities be investigated and isolated or stopped.

In declining to name Fencel in the TRO, Judge Cahn explained that due to the rush nature of today's hearing, he was unwilling at this time to take any action that would restrain the Philadelphia Police Department over the July 4 weekend. He then scheduled a July 8 hearing to consider extension of the order to Fencel and its conversion into a preliminary injunction pending criminal proceedings.

Cahn proceeded to hear legal arguments and evidence concerning the RU. Appearing under subpoena, former Federal agent Roy Frankhouser testified that he had been sent into the RU by the Treasury's ATF Division, he reported RU to be a violent group in possession of guns and explosives.

USLP Congressional candidate Steve Douglas also testified on the pattern of recent RU attacks on the Labor Party and their interface with preparations for July 4 terrorism scenarios targetting Philadelphia, in which the RU has been assigned a central role by that organization's controllers at the Institute for Policy Studies.

The Labor Party has received information that a meeting of right-wing controllers of the FBI and the ATF was held in New York to plan the assassination of Roy Frankhouser and Labor Party member Scott Thompson.

According to the information, the following were present at the meeting: William Sickles, Imperial Wizard of the Adamic Knights KKK, who directs what he has termed a "corps of ex-convict killer"; Al Lentz, Grand Dragon of the Independent KKK, who collaborated with the federal Law Enforcement Assistance Administration in a major harrassment campaign against the USLP in York, Pa. last year; Frank Draeger, head of the National Revolutionary Army, who jumped bail on gun-running charges June 26; and Charlie Holland, New York Grand Dragon of the United Klans of America and armorer at the prison in Walden, N.Y. Members of Draeger's National Revolutionary Army are known to be actively collaborating with Institute for Policy Studies terrorists of the Revolutionary Union to provoke violence at the Philadelphia July 4 celebration.

To cover the planned assassination, Frankhouser was simultaneously named as an FBI and CIA operative in "The Crusader — the Voice of the White Majority" which is printed by David Duke, Imperial Wizard of the Knights KKK. Duke has been praised in the New York Times for his "clean-up, college-educated, media-oriented image." The Crusader article also implies that Frankhouser was responsible for the death of American Nazi Party leader Daniel Burros, who committed suicide in 1966 at Frankhouser's house after his Jewish origins were exposed in the Times.

Frankhouser narrowly escaped an assassination attempt on June 23 in Westminister, Va. Five shots were fired at Frankhouser who was accompanied by two Klan leaders, Ray Doefler and Tony Lawricki, both of whom have denounced the involvement of the FBI and "left" groups controlled by Marcus Raskin's Institute for Policy Studies in plans for terrorist disruptions July 4. The attempted assassin, currently held by the Virginia State Police, was an admitted follower of Dale Reusch, Imperial Wizard of the Invisible Empire KKK and a founding member with William Sickles of the Confederacy Group, an Ohio-based, right-wing umbrella organization, which was heavily involved in recent death threats and harassment of USLP organizers. The attempted assassination was filmed by a NBC crew at the location of the Klan rally site. Both Sickles and Reusch are defendants in the USLP suite against Edward Levi.

Seattle TRO

USLP attorneys in Seattle have filed for a TRO on behalf of USLP Senatorial candidate William Wertz who, in the last month, has been assaulted and received death threats from the Institute-controlled Counterspy-Fifth Estate organization in the Pacific Northwest. Named in the suit, which will also be added to the party's existing legal action against Counterspy filed early this month, are Marcus Raskin, Counterspy magazine and its "editor" Tim Butz, Weatherman terrorist and thug William Van Veenendaal, and Weatherman controller Paul Zinsel. Zinsel was recently arrested by Seattle police with a cache of bombs and incendiary devices as well as threatening letters against the Labor Party in his possession.

The suit will also argue that the 15 page Terrorist Information Project brief on the U.S. Labor Party, scheduled for Counterspy publication next week and financed by the Institute, the Communist Party U.S.A. and the Socialist Worker's Party, should be barred from publication for its announced role in announcing a terrorists's open season on the U.S. Labor Party. In May, Counterspy magazine carried a libel against the USLP roughly coinciding with a Seattle-area meeting held by Counterspy's Butz on "How to Stop the USLP." The June 29 Seattle Post Intelligencer, reported that the Institute created-George Jackson Brigade, has shifted its methods from bombings to revolutionary violence against the ruling class and its allies." These developments were the immediate prelude to the round of assaults and death threats against party members that followed.

"Operation Bident": Attorney General Levi's Command Post For Insurrection

July 3 (NSIPS) — Under the aegis of "Operation Bident," U.S. Attorney General Edward Levi has taken direct command and control over Marcus Raskin's Institute for Policy Studies terrorist networks, to oversee sustained activations of terrorism and race war. Through the Justice Department's Civil Disturbance Unit, Levi controls the vital flow and analysis of intelligence to law enforcement agencies and the Executive while the Department's Community Relations Service provides logistical support to the Institute's counter-gang deployments into "Operation Bident's" target areas.

Although "Operation Bident" has been underway for months, Levi has resurrected the cold coup command and control apparatus developed in the late 1960s under the rubric of "Garden Plot" in anticipation of the operation's culmination in martial law and, possibly, the assassination of President Ford.

Levi's pivotal role in the insurrection was defined by former Army intelligence head and coup architect Lt. Gen. William Yarborough, who in an interview this week declared that the Attorney General is responsible for that "period of time which is most tenuous...between when the civil disorders begin and martial law is declared." Once Levi determines that the Institute for Policy Studies terror activation necessitates military intervention, Yarborough concluded, then "the Justice Department people move right into the basement of the Pentagon and the two jointly run the operation."

In another interview an Army spokesman concurred, promising that "when the Army is called upon, we will do whatever is necessary to the 'Garden Plot' operations plan."

"Live Options"

Following months of intense preparations in the midst of the battle now raging between anti- and pro-constitutionalist forces in the U.S. government, Levi and the Institute's top terrorist controller, Marcus Raskin, have succeeded in setting the stage for both a weekend of terror for the July 4 celebrations and the longer-fused race war and Democratic-GOP convention disruption options. Should July 4 fizzle as an immediate result of U.S. Labor Party intervention and briefings to legitimate police and government officials and the population at large, these options have the built-in capacity to resurface in the weeks and months ahead as Vice President Nelson Rockefeller, leader of the anti-constitutionalist forces, psychotically drives for open war. Already ripe for riot are Philadelphia, Youngstown, Boston, and Chicago, where both levels of activation are evident.

In Philadelphia, thousands of the Institute's "July 4th Coalition" and "Rich Off Our Backs" zombies will march this weekend through racially troubled neighborhoods, despite court actions taken yesterday by City Councilman Jannoti and community groups to have rally permits
