

by David Duke, Imperial Wizard of the Knights KKK. Duke has been praised in the New York Times for his "clean-up, college-educated, media-oriented image." The Crusader article also implies that Frankhouser was responsible for the death of American Nazi Party leader Daniel Burros, who committed suicide in 1966 at Frankhouser's house after his Jewish origins were exposed in the Times.

Frankhouser narrowly escaped an assassination attempt on June 23 in Westminster, Va. Five shots were fired at Frankhouser who was accompanied by two Klan leaders, Ray Doefler and Tony Lawricki, both of whom have denounced the involvement of the FBI and "left" groups controlled by Marcus Raskin's Institute for Policy Studies in plans for terrorist disruptions July 4. The attempted assassin, currently held by the Virginia State Police, was an admitted follower of Dale Reusch, Imperial Wizard of the Invisible Empire KKK and a founding member with William Sickles of the Confederacy Group, an Ohio-based, right-wing umbrella organization, which was heavily involved in recent death threats and harassment of USLP organizers. The attempted assassination was filmed by a NBC crew at the location of the Klan rally site. Both Sickles and Reusch are defendants in the USLP suite against Edward Levi.

Seattle TRO

USLP attorneys in Seattle have filed for a TRO on behalf of USLP Senatorial candidate William Wertz who, in the last month, has been assaulted and received death threats from the Institute-controlled Counterspy-Fifth Estate organization in the Pacific Northwest. Named in the suit, which will also be added to the party's existing legal action against Counterspy filed early this month, are Marcus Raskin, Counterspy magazine and its "editor" Tim Butz, Weatherman terrorist and thug William Van Veenendaal, and Weatherman controller Paul Zinsel. Zinsel was recently arrested by Seattle police with a cache of bombs and incendiary devices as well as threatening letters against the Labor Party in his possession.

The suit will also argue that the 15 page Terrorist Information Project brief on the U.S. Labor Party, scheduled for Counterspy publication next week and financed by the Institute, the Communist Party U.S.A. and the Socialist Worker's Party, should be barred from publication for its announced role in announcing a terrorists's open season on the U.S. Labor Party. In May, Counterspy magazine carried a libel against the USLP roughly coinciding with a Seattle-area meeting held by Counterspy's Butz on "How to Stop the USLP." The June 29 Seattle Post Intelligencer, reported that the Institute created-George Jackson Brigade, has shifted its methods from bombings to revolutionary violence against the ruling class and its allies." These developments were the immediate prelude to the round of assaults and death threats against party members that followed.

"Operation Bident": Attorney General Levi's Command Post For Insurrection

July 3 (NSIPS) — Under the aegis of "Operation Bident," U.S. Attorney General Edward Levi has taken direct command and control over Marcus Raskin's Institute for Policy Studies terrorist networks, to oversee sustained activations of terrorism and race war. Through the Justice Department's Civil Disturbance Unit, Levi controls the vital flow and analysis of intelligence to law enforcement agencies and the Executive while the Department's Community Relations Service provides logistical support to the Institute's countergang deployments into "Operation Bident's" target areas.

Although "Operation Bident" has been underway for months, Levi has resurrected the cold coup command and control apparatus developed in the late 1960s under the rubric of "Garden Plot" in anticipation of the operation's culmination in martial law and, possibly, the assassination of President Ford.

Levi's pivotal role in the insurrection was defined by former Army intelligence head and coup architect Lt. Gen. William Yarborough, who in an interview this week declared that the Attorney General is responsible for that "period of time which is most tenuous...between when the civil disorders begin and martial law is declared." Once Levi determines that the Institute for Policy Studies terror activation necessitates military intervention, Yarborough concluded, then "the Justice Department people move right into the basement of the Pentagon and the two jointly run the operation."

In another interview an Army spokesman concurred, promising that "when the Army is called upon, we will do whatever is necessary to the 'Garden Plot' operations plan."

"Live Options"

Following months of intense preparations in the midst of the battle now raging between anti- and pro-constitutionalist forces in the U.S. government, Levi and the Institute's top terrorist controller, Marcus Raskin, have succeeded in setting the stage for both a weekend of terror for the July 4 celebrations and the longer-fused race war and Democratic-GOP convention disruption options. Should July 4 fizzle as an immediate result of U.S. Labor Party intervention and briefings to legitimate police and government officials and the population at large, these options have the built-in capacity to resurface in the weeks and months ahead as Vice President Nelson Rockefeller, leader of the anti-constitutionalist forces, psychotically drives for open war. Already ripe for riot are Philadelphia, Youngstown, Boston, and Chicago, where both levels of activation are evident.

In Philadelphia, thousands of the Institute's "July 4th Coalition" and "Rich Off Our Backs" zombies will march this weekend through racially troubled neighborhoods, despite court actions taken yesterday by City Councilman Jannoti and community groups to have rally permits revoked. Rumors are circulating throughout the city that the notorious Zulu Nation and other black youth gangs have made pre-arranged alliances to "wage war on whitey."

In Youngstown, where the National Guard is already "on alert," the "Rich Off Our Backs"-allied "July 3rd Mobilization Committee," headed by ex-Barakaite Ron Daniels, scheduled a march today amid rumors that guns and explosives were being brought into the area.

Yesterday three explosions rocked Boston, a city already hard hit by Levi-orchestrated racial violence. Credit for two of the bombings were claimed by the South Boston Defense League, a key countergang actor in the Justice Department's race war operation. The third bombing fits the modus operandi of the Institute-created Sam Melville-Jonathan Jackson Brigade.

In Chicago, the Levi-Rockefeller University of Chicago wrecking crew has activated the violent P-Stone Nation youth gang, the Martin Luther King, Jr. Movement, Jesse "Pimp" Jackson's PUSH, and a host of related scum to demonstrate in Marquette Park — a Nazi stronghold!

"Command and Control"

The U.S. Justice Department's Civil Disturbance Unit, headed by Levi's second-in-command Deputy Attorney General Harold Tyler, Jr., has primary responsibility for coordinating and evaluating all intelligence, and thus acts as the basis for determining where and when troops will be deployed to deal with disorders. The guiding principle for the Unit was laid out by Levi when he shackled all investigative, legal, and enforcement "preventative measures" under the policy of "no action until a crime has been committed." Earlier in the month, Tyler used Levi's policy to stifle Philadelphia Mayor Frank Rizzo's request for federal troops, despite the intensive countergang buildup, rumor psywar, and police shortages in the city.

Levi's Community Relations Service foot soldiers are probably the most critical aspect of the Justice Department's command and control. One CRS staffer revealed in an interview that the Service not only arranged the housing, transportation, food, and toilet facilities for the American Indian Movement's cross-country excursion, but also assured their protection by sending advance scouts ahead of the teepee caravan to give police and government officials "anticipatory briefings." The briefings were explicitly aimed to dispel local concern about FBI warnings that the AIM was being conduited weapons and explosives for a replay of the Little Big Horn. The FBI warnings were well founded: last week the Bureau arrested Senator James Abourezk's son for running guns and ammunition out of AIM's Pine Ridge Indian Reservation and into "Operation Bicent's" Philadelphia target site!

According to Justice Department spokesmen, CRS personnel were deployed weeks in advance to "make direct contact with the leadership" of the Institute's countergangs in order to "coordinate and arrange housing and transportation, etc." and "train the marshals." Those marshals form the countergang cadre in charge of controlling the herd of dupes and zombies under their purview, and of acting as liaisons to CRS, other demonstrators, and the media.

The Department's CRS plays both sides of the "Operation Bicent" game plan. Working through formal and informal "rumor control networks" on the streets, with the provocateurs, with police, and with the Civil Disturbance Unit, Levi's "crisis mediators" are able to manipulate both sides and maintain fingertip control on tension levels.

Ten Years in the Making

The wave of terrorism, civil disorders, and chaos to be followed by martial law that Lt. Gen. Yarborough predicted is no idle threat. For the past ten years a mammoth insurrectionary apparatus has been built up within the Justice Department to determine the activation of military occupation of U.S. cities.

The model for the Levi-directed overturn of the Constitution is West Germany, where "crisis management" police-state measures have already been initiated in response to terrorism carried out under U.S. National Security Council direction. Lt. Gen. Yarborough, who personally laid the groundwork for these measures while serving at the headquarters of U.S. Military Intelligence in West Germany from 1964 to 1966 gloated, "I am encouraged by certain developments in West Germany. I would have thought that the Germans were so tarred by Hitler's brush that they would have had to have been made to bend over backwards before they would begin denying civil liberties."

After successfully creating a "Garden Plot" apparatus for West Germany, which, in his own words, "was tracking upwards of 200 agents a month," Yarborough was made head of military intelligence and ordered into the Justice Department in 1967 to replicate this operation — training the "civil rights" personnel under "liberal" Attorney General Ramsey Clark and establishing an intelligence monitoring and analysis system to orchestrate military deployments for civil disturbances. The use of troops to quell race riots in U.S. cities in 1965 and 1966 without an adequate counterintelligence infrastructure necessitated this National Security Council-directed move.

By 1968, the Justice Department's Interdivisional Intelligence Unit (IDIU) was set up under Yarborough's guidance — a computerized intelligence and retrieval system and evaluative body, interfaced with the Department of Defense's "Domestic War Room" at a stage determined by the Attorney General in the event of large-scale rioting and civil disorders throughout the country.

Yarborough was ordered out of the Justice Department in 1970, shortly before year-long Congressional hearings exposed the scandalous surveillance of U.S. anti-war and civil-rights protestors by U.S. Military Intelligence. These hearings, paralleling the later Church Committee coverup, made headlines with revelations of Army Intelligence's use of right-wing terror operations to attack left-wing dissidents, but left untouched the massive Justice Department apparatus.

By the time the military was overtly withdrawn from the "civil rights" operation, the Justice Department was well equipped to coordinate both the deployment of terrorist gangs and police and military response. The IDIU, designed by former Assistant Attorney General John Doar at the request of then Attorney General Clark, was a totally "activity-oriented" computer system that centralized information from government poverty agencies (Office of Economic Opportunity, Department of Health, Education and Welfare, Model Cities, Legal Services), the Department of Labor, the CIA, the Treasury Department's Internal Revenue Service and Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms Bureau, the FBI, and Army Intelligence into a readily retrievable form. Through the IDIU, the Justice Department could readily establish the names, profile, and history of foreign travel, and current location of any individual in its list. The FBI, the target of Levi reforms, was a mere courier to other federal agencies and departments in this operation. In 1971, ten thousand of the names in the IDIU computer were handed over to the CIA unit known as "Operaton Chaos," which was charged with planning and coordinating international terrorist activities.

The Committee that ran the IDIU was made up of the same sections of the Justice Department now orchestrating the deployment of terrorists for July 4 and after: the Civil Rights Division, the Criminal Division, the (now defunct) Internal Security Division, the Civil Disturbance Unit, and the Community Relations Service. In 1973 the name "IDIU" was dropped, and the Unit's functions and intelligence-gathering capability were incorporated into the Civil Disturbance Unit and the Community Relations Service.

The extent of the IDIU-Justice Department conspiracy makes the FBI's Cointelpro operation pale in comparison. In the early 1970s, the IDIU activated "Garden Plot" during the Kent State student protests, where four students were killed by National Guard, and at the so-called "occupation" of Wounded Knee by the American Indian Movement. At Wounded Knee, the arms were provided to the AIM by an FBI-infiltrator, Douglass Durham, who served as the head of AIM "security." In every case of Justice Department-directed riots and disorders, the activated "dissidents" were creations of Raskin's Institute for Policy Studies.

This time around, the scope of terrorist assaults is intended to ensure the permanent imposition of martial law. Levi's continued coverup of Institute for Policy Studies terrorists and systematic destruction of the Constitution are allowing full employment of Rockefeller's desperate plan for insurrection — sustained rioting provoked by Institute for Policy Studies controlled terrorists, a nuclear terrorist assault on a U.S. city, and-or the assassination of President Ford.
