Memorandum of Evidence

Rockefeller’s Institute for Policy Studies and Interpol Ran the Uganda Terrorist Incident

July 6 (NSIPS) — Evidence, principally available in the public domain, establishes the indisputable fact that the June 27 to July 4 terrorist incident that involved the hijacking of an Air France plane was coordinated from beginning to end by Rockefeller Family-allied agencies including Marcus Raskin’s Institute for Policy Studies, Interpol, and the military clique in Israel centered around Israeli Defense Minister Shimon Peres and former Defense Minister Moshe Dayan.

Evidence can be broken down into two principal categories:
(1) Evidence that individuals affiliated with the above-cited agencies had extensive foreknowledge of critical features of the Uganda events;
(2) Internal features of the hijacking and the subsequent Israeli commando raid that can only be explained from the standpoint of the above cited complicity.

Pereknowledge Of The Hoax
A Conference on International Terrorism June 9-11 in New York City under the sponsorship of the Ralph Bunche Institute of the City University of New York was the first semi-public event at which all of the critical features of the Uganda hoax scenario were spelled out — most significantly in the keynote address by Senator Jacob Javits (R. NY).

Javits, a longstanding close collaborator of Nelson Rockefeller and recognized spokesman for Rockefeller Family interests, declared that “countries which harbor or otherwise aid terrorists must be targets of international sanctions. Very lethal measures are needed, especially against such irresponsible nations as Libya...If it requires an air drop to get at the terrorists taking refuge (in Libya), then there will be an air drop and Libya will go down the drain in the process...If terrorism is on the rise, as I foresee it, then independence and liberty will be compromised.” Javits added. “I realize my words are dripping with blood.”

Javits charged the conference attendees with responsibility to “decide how to coerce the Third World into agreeing to joint action against terrorism.” The approximately fifty participants included top level countersurveillance warfare planners from the Central Intelligence Agency and the key private intelligence apparatus controlled by the Rockefeller family, including the Institute for Policy Studies, MIT, the American University Law Institute, and Rockefeller-Institute for Policy Studies spokesmen like former Attorney General Ramsey Clark. A full range of international Rockefeller-controlled media personnel were in attendance as well.

Every critical feature of the Ugandan operation and the various policy proposals ostensibly generated from those events were developed in detail at the three days of conference sessions, including:
(1) the virtual destruction of the notion of national sovereignty for Third World states in regard to the conducting of Atlanticist destabilization campaigns and direct military incursions against particularly pro-development regimes;
(2) the imposition — through the United Nations and other international institutions — of a formal code of international laws providing the juridical sanction for the above cited violations of sovereignty; thus effectively destroying the very fibres of current principals of international relations;
(3) the deployment of Rockefeller-controlled terrorist units to guarantee a state of continual destabilization, friction and eventual war in the Middle East and throughout the African continent.

Lt. General William Yarborough, the top CIA terrorist controller and planner who stated bluntly at the April Glassboro terrorist conference that “ninety-five percent of the terrorism in the world is controlled by the CIA,” was aware — at least 72 hours in advance — of extremely significant internal features of the Uganda hoax. Yarborough reported, in a private discussion on June 29, that plans for the Uganda incident included the implicating of Somalia and Kenya — with the overall result of significant destabilization of the East African region. Every press account to date identified July 1 as the earliest date on which Israeli plans for the commando raid and Israeli contact with the government of Kenya concerning those plans were established. Thus, Yarborough’s knowledge of the plans on June 29 establishes the full complicity of the top public and private U.S. national security networks that Yarborough is connected with.

The Internal Features
Without the knowing, on-the-spot complicity of Interpol, the Dayan-Peres clique controlling Israeli security-military apparatus and the Institute for Policy Studies, the Air France hijacking could not have possibly taken place.

(1) The terrorists themselves have now been identified as being under the command of a known Institute-Interpol agent. Information released today by the Israeli government and given wide circulation in the international press names the leader of the terrorist team as Wilfred Böse. The following facts of Böse’s career, known to the U.S. Labor Party during 1975, served to identify him at that time as an important Interpol terrorist field operative:

The West German born Böse founded one of the key Institute for Policy Studies terrorist centers in West Germany — the “Red Star Collective.” The London Times has identified the Red Star group as the spawning ground for every terrorist operation in the BRD, including the Baader-Meinhof gang. Takahashi’s Japanese Red Army is directly connected into the Böse group in West Germany. The Red Star headquarters in Frankfurt, which is the West German base of operations for Institute operative Daniel Cohn-Bendit, was targeted as recently as one week ago as what Interior Minister Meinhoffer pinned “the terrorist center of West Germany.”

Despite the fact of “Red Star” being the key Institute for Policy Studies nexus point in West Germany, Böse was released from Meinhoffer’s custody two weeks before the Uganda events after he provided the Red Star headquarters as his permanent address! Böse had been turned over to West German officials by French security authorities following his arrest following the assassination of two French DST agents during July 19. Böse was detained because of his close connections to the Interpol assassin, “Carlos” Ramirez. No satisfactory explanation of these facts can be established other than within the geometry of Institute-Interpol operative Böse being released from custody in order to carry out the Air France assignment. Knowing complicity of West
German interior Meinhofer is a secondary, but important, corollary fact.

(2) The Institute terrorist team could not have placed their metallic weapons onto the Air France plane without the open complicity of security officials at either the Tel Aviv or Athens airports. In the far more likely case of the arms being smuggled onto the plane in Israel, direct complicity by the Dayan-Peres military security circles would have been essential. In Athens, a well-known playground for Institute operatives, and particularly a known base for ex-CIA agent Winslow Peck, only Interpol has the capability of by-passing security and delivering weapons onto an aircraft.

These facts have also been corroborated in the major international media under the paper-thin cover of an “international terrorist net of accomplices” who infiltrated airport security positions and technical positions in airport traffic towers directing the Air France plane into Entebbe airport. In fact, such a network of accomplices did play a decisive role in directing the hijacking; however, those “accomplices” were all under the employ and direction of Interpol.

(3) Further Institute complicity in the Uganda affair is established through the deployment in West Germany of close Marcus Raikin collaborators Philip Agee, K. Barton Osborne and Winslow Peck — all of the Raskin-founded Counter Spy / Fifth Estate group — into West Germany throughout the period of the hijacking. These U.S. agents were involved with Baader-Meinhof RAF members preparing actions timed to coincide with the unfolding events in Uganda.

Within 24 hours after Peck’s departure from West Berlin, four female members of the Baader-Meinhof Red Army Fraction “escaped” from a maximum security prison terrace through the Interpol “escape route.” At least one of the escapees was among the list of terrorists whose release was the principal demand of the Uganda terrorist team. Under the pretext of the escape, Interpol was placed in charge of the continent-wide search for the prisoners — a search that directly fuels the moves towards the full implementation of “crisis management” regimes throughout Western Europe.

4) Initial reports of the Israeli commando raid tell a far different tale than the later reports of a “precision deployment” that was “the sole basis for the successful freeing of the hostages.” A full 25 minutes of gun battle between Israeli commandos and Ugandan military and security personnel occurred before the commandos moved in on the terrorists. The intensive battle served as an effective signal to the terrorists to begin what was likely intended to be a “Munich massacre” slaughter of the hostages. Initial reports indicated that panic set in on the terrorist leader and that members of the Air France crew succeeded in stalling the terrorists from at one point blowing up the hangar in which they were trapped.

While nothing definitive can be stated regarding the status of negotiations at the time of the commando raid, the response of the Atlanticist controlled international press — especially in their uniformly labeling Ugandan President Idi Amin Dada as having been in collaboration with the hijackers and in full support of their actions — was a calculated black propaganda effort directed at providing full justification for the Israeli invasion and a sanctioning of the principal first spilled out at the Ralph Bunche Institute conference: state terrorism as a legitimate “response” to terrorism.

While Amin’s own history as a pawn in Atlanticist destabilization campaigns in East Africa makes competent analysis of his United Nations Security Council memo of July 6 difficult at this point, the facts and objectives of the international press campaign were absolutely directed at the destabilization of the African continent. The instructions to the press were spelled out at the mid-June Bunche Institute conference.

(5) A corollary objective of the press campaign was the discrediting and labeling of the pro-Marxist Popular Front for the Liberation of Palestine (PFLP) as a renegade terrorist gang responsible for the Ugandan incident. Facts released in the July 8 edition of the Christian Science Monitor confirm the already known fact that Wadi Haddad, the PFLP officials closely associated with the terrorist hijackers, has been a longstanding bitter factional enemy of the PFLP Habbash leadership and the Arafat leadership of the Palestinian Liberation Organization (PLO); and that his actions have been consistently directed over the past five years at undercutting policy actions taken by the above cited leaders.

The Current Danger

The dangers associated with the Rockefeller-ordered Uganda hoax are three-fold. First, as General Yarborough has fully corroborated, the Uganda events are to serve as the trigger for a series of international hijacking and related terrorist actions directed at immediately destabilizing the pro-development forces in the Third World and providing the needed leverage to guarantee Rockefeller debt collection.

Second, this sequence of terrorist events is intended to provide further justification for the complete destruction of international relations as they are now carried out. Nothing less than the continued existence of the notion of national sovereignty — the cornerstone for worldwide political relations — is on the line. To endorse or stand passive in the face of the Rockefeller push for the codification of new international “sanctions” against those nations now in the forefront of the battle for the implementation of the new world economic order is itself a suicidal and criminal violation of the existing body of international law that was implemented at Nuremberg.

Third, the Uganda events have triggered a major push on the part of the West German government to permanently implement “crisis management” forms of police state rule in West Germany with the immediate exporting of those institutional changes to every other Western European state.

Tactics

This hideous Atlanticist operation can be effectively defeated through the implementation of several tactical initiatives.

Interpol agents must be openly identified and deported from countries in which they are currently operating. The history of this institution underlines its openly criminal nature and provides more than sufficient justification for such surgical actions. Created during the 1920s under the auspices of the Rockefeller family and other Anglo-American financial interests, Interpol operated throughout the World War II period under the control of the Nazi state. Following the war, the Nazi networks were retained intact and to this date, the Interpol operations — particularly in the Third World — reflect both the character and direct lineage of the Nazi activities.

The Institute for Policy Studies, the allied political control agency running international terrorist deployments and destabilization campaigns, must be seen in precisely the same terms as Interpol. Institute-connected operatives must be named and excluded from political action. As the Uganda events demonstrate, their actions run precisely counter to the interests of world order and development.
