

Temple in Amritsar, after a pitched battle with hundreds of terrorists from Bhabar Khalsa, Dal Khalsa, and other Sikh sects—all of which function under the WSO political command.

From his base in Vancouver, Parmar regularly travels throughout Canada to recruit assassins at Sikh temples. Parmar has definitely been party to the meetings arranging the deployments of Sikh terrorists for use in India and the United States.

Frank Camper: The FBI assists a murder plan

On May 4, the New Orleans Police Department, after being alerted by Indian security, arrested five members of the Sikh Student Federation—an arm of the WSO—just minutes before their planned murder of Bhajan Lal, chief minister of the Indian state of Haryana, then in Louisiana for medical treatment.

That same weekend, some 15-20 Sikh terrorists had congregated at a camp in Colombia, New Jersey, for training exercises to prepare for a projected murder of Rajiv Gandhi during his early June state visit to the United States.

The trainer of both teams was Frank Camper, a contract agent for the FBI and a self-described mercenary.

The scandalous feature of the New Orleans arrests is that they occurred over the loud protests of the FBI, which claimed that no arrests should have been made until the actual attempt. Correspondingly, despite the fact that the Colombia Sikh camp was under 24-hour surveillance by the FBI, with their own agent serving as instructor, all SSF assassins were let slip by the FBI as they fled to Canada upon learning of their cohorts' arrests in New Orleans.

Two of the Sikhs who fled Colombia had also been through Camper's "Mercenary School" in Dolomite, Alabama, which had trained the New Orleans team, beginning in November 1984, in such fine arts as "mine placement, use of plastic explosives, and industrial sabotage." These two—Lal and Ammand Singh—were later implicated, by some sources, in the June 23 bombings of the Air India and CP Air flights.

Lal and Ammand Singh were joined by the rest of the fleeing Sikhs in Canada—their original point of departure. According to some sources, the whole training exercise under Camper was arranged by Lakhbir Singh of Vancouver, the nephew of Bhindranwale, who also reportedly attended the recent Niagara Falls meeting.

The FBI-Camper training in many cases is not necessary per se; many of the Sikh terrorists are veterans of the Indian army and many of them served earlier in special commando units once led by WSO leader, Gen. J. S. Bhullar. The Camper school, however, provided the Anglo-Soviet controllers of the Sikh separatists with the "sheep dipping" that would place a "Made in U.S.A." label on Sikh terrorism, while keeping the Sikhs under the eye of the FBI, an intelligence agency that has always functioned as a sub-branch of the British Special Operations Executive.

Mossad, ADL created Sikh terrorism

by Joseph Brewda

On July 26, Dr. Carlos Arosemena, former President of Ecuador, arrived in London, England, together with a high-powered state delegation. This included Dr. Cristobal Montero, former Ecuadorian ambassador to Canada and current director of immigration for the foreign ministry, and a curious Sikh convert named Atma Singh Khalsa, born Adelbarto Calegari, of Milan and Quito. After meeting with the Ecuadorian charge d'affaires at Heathrow airport, the party traveled up to Kingston upon Thames for the meetings which were the object of their long trip. Under what was then great secrecy, the Ecuadorians sat down with Dr. Jagjit Singh Chauhan, the self-described president of a Khalistan government-in-exile. Accompanying Chauhan were representatives of the Dal Khalsa, the National Council of Khalistan, World Sikh Organization, and the other Sikh terrorist organizations who have conducted assassinations and terror-bombings over the last months.

Under the grandiose plans laid out by the Ecuadorian delegation, some 30,000 acres of land—in a prime coca-growing region—would be granted by Ecuador to a duly recognized "Khalistan Government-in-Exile." Chauhan and company would also be provided the suitable building complexes in Quito to house the exiled government in fitting, dignified style.

Why is it that Ecuador, of all places, took the decision to officially safehouse the most important assassin movement today, in the face of opposition by all civilized nations? For the answer, one has only to look to Israel and its secret intelligence agency, the Mossad. Ecuador is notorious as the Mossad base of operations and stronghold in Ibero-America. The displacement of the world cocaine trade out of Peru, through the vigorous action of its newly inaugurated President Alan García, has deepened the Mossad grip over Ecuador—and deepened its commitment to cocaine production.

Ecuador became the Ibero-American headquarters of the Mossad back in 1977 when Israeli Gen. Rehavam Ze'evi, then advisor to Israeli Prime Minister Menachem Begin on the "Warfare against Terror" formally left Israeli government service and emigrated to Quito. Ze'evi was accompanied by his longtime sidekick, Betsalel Mizrahi. Both have been widely accused within Israel of being the "godfathers" of the Israeli Mafia.

While stationed in Ecuador through 1980, Ze'evi founded and directed a "counter-terror" consultant firm more or less exclusively employed by the Ecuadorian government, to which he was an official advisor. Ze'evi is also said to have offered to arrange arms deals for Ecuador just months after the Pentagon had vetoed Israeli defense ministry attempts to sell Ecuador the Kfir jet.

From his base in Quito, Ze'evi reportedly cooperated with elements of the Argentine navy to overthrow the Bolivian government in 1980 and install the notorious "Cocaine Colonels." The same Ze'evi then negotiated a huge arms package to that regime, which immediately became a leading dope exporter.

Among the leading figures who arranged this Chauhan/Ecuadorian government agreement to safehouse Sikh terrorists is Rabbi Morton Rosenthal of New York, director of the Latin American Division of the B'nai B'rith's Anti-Defamation League. Rosenthal, according to reliable sources, is one of top ten highest-level operatives of the Mossad in the Western Hemisphere, having special oversight over Mossad communications stations. To this end, he has reportedly been involved in establishing secret Mossad communications stations in the Amazon River valley, perhaps not that far from formerly well-entrenched cocaine plantations in the Peruvian and Colombian jungle.

Rosenthal is a business partner and close political associate of one of the key Anglo-Soviet controllers of the Sikhs—the quaint spook, Jon Speller. Based out of his book publishing firm in New York, Speller is the controller of Dr. Jagjit Singh Chauhan and the sponsor of his past tours to the United States.

to meet his co-thinkers in the Heritage Foundation, the Eli Lilly Endowment, and High Frontier's Lt.-Gen. (ret.) Daniel Graham, among other individuals and institutions, in an imaginative effort to dupe the U.S. government into aiding and abetting the Khalistan movement against India.

Speller had earlier been instrumental in convincing certain factions of U.S. intelligence that funding and supplying arms to the Afghani Mujahedeen, the pro-Khomeini, allegedly pro-Western guerrillas, was in the U.S. interest. Speller's Committee for a Free Afghanistan is among the institutions that Chauhan is in contact with—and from whom Sikh separatists receive massive supplies of arms.

The Mossad assistance to the Sikhs in such ventures as establishing "Eretz Punjab" in the Ecuadorian jungle is not a recent development. The entire "Khalistani movement"—and its terrorism—has been carefully cultivated by the Israelis, on behalf of Anglo-Soviet interface networks exemplified by Jon Speller. Chauhan and General Bhullar's claim that the model for Sikh separatist terrorism is the Israeli Irgun is not merely metaphorical.

Investigation by EIR has established that the command structure of the World Sikh Organization is led by a Mossad-directed "old boy" network emerging out of the Indian army.

The "Khalistani movement" demonstrating in Washington last June 12.

This network has been linked to the Mossad since at least the 1971 Indo-Pakistani war.

The individuals who formed the WSO have been members of a loose grouping within the Indian army with years-long association with the Mossad. While Jagjit Singh Chauhan, the former finance minister of Punjab state, was installed as WSO figurehead, the day-to-day direction of the movement was given to: Gen. Jaswant Singh Bhullar, Brig. Iqbal Singh, Brig. Parminder Singh, and Gen. Sebag Singh, who was killed in the Golden Temple with Sant Bhindranwale.

During the 1971 Indo-Pakistani war, General Secretary General Bhullar was a commander in the infantry and is the individual who took Dacca, one of the key actions of the war. Brig. Iqbal Singh, now perhaps the leading commando handler for the WSO, was then a lieutenant-colonel in the same Eastern theater. Parminder Singh, Iqbal Singh's relative by marriage, now resident in Nova Scotia, was an Indian army specialist in commando tactics.

General Shebag Singh, an intimate associate of General Bhullar, was during the war one of the top Indian army specialists in developing "insurgency movements" within hostile states. Shebag directed the well-known Mukti-Bahini guerrilla movement within East Pakistan, which successfully fought the Pakistanis in an effort to create an independent Bangladesh.

Shebag's expertise in manipulation of separatist movements, commando tactics, and arms smuggling was later put to good use for the Israelis, British, and Soviets in their tactic of fragmenting India. It was only Shebag Singh's death—while serving as the military adviser to Bhindranwale at the Golden Temple—which prevented his installment as a top WSO controller, furthering his oversight over Sikh hit teams.

These former Sikh Indian army officers all served under the then-head of the Indian Army Eastern Command, General Jacob, and it is through Jacob that their early connection to the Mossad army chief of staff, is the product of the ancient Indian Jewish community, originally formed in 100 A.D. following the destruction of the Second Temple in Jerusalem. Over the centuries, this community was supplemented by significant Jewish emigration from the old intelligence center of Aleppo, Syria, whose key families, such as the Dweks, also show up as the leading merchant families of Calcutta. This same Aleppo Jewish community, today centered in Jerusalem and Brooklyn, is currently working to hand the Middle East over to Moscow in exchange for KGB support of a Greater Israel.

According to some sources, Jacob had excellent relations with the Mossad throughout his career and was among those Indians who insisted upon India's upgrading of diplomatic relations with Israel. According to these sources, Jacob and his associates were part of the same constellation of Jews within the Indian army officer corps who had expedited Gen. Moshe Dayan's secret tours of India during the Desai government of 1977-80. This same group may have been instrumental in establishing the dope kingdom of Nepal as the Mossad center it is today.

This same old-boys network is not only central to directing the WSO terror operations, but running arms to supply them as well.

The Israeli arms route

According to investigations by several U.S. and foreign government agencies, the arms now reaching Sikh terrorists in Punjab, flow from the United States into Canada and from there into Pakistan. Not so curiously, the same individuals, routes, and sources of supply are also used by Western agencies to supply guerrillas in Afghanistan. It is a well-known fact that as much as 30% of the arms officially slated for Afghanistan, through Pakistan, wind up in Sikh hands in India.

According to reliable sources, much of the U.S. arms reaching India are smuggled from the United States into Canada on the remote Montana-Alberta border. These arms are then transshipped through Winnipeg, Manitoba, and on

Sikh terror incidents since the Punjab accord

On July 23, Indian Prime Minister Rajiv Gandhi and Sant Harchand Singh Longowal, moderate leader of the Akali Dal, the Sikh political party, agreed to a bold, comprehensive settlement of disputes between Punjab and the Indian central government. The agreement paved the way for dealing with any problems in Punjab which actually originate in India. Since that time, the following actions have been taken internationally by the terrorists:

July 30: All-India Sikh Student Federation members and followers of Joginder Singh, father of the late Sant Bhindranwale, riot at Golden Temple in Amritsar, condemning the Longowal settlement.

July 31: Congress-I MP Lalith Makhan is shot dead by two unknown assailants in Delhi. Makhan was a close associate of Rajiv Gandhi and the son-in-law of the governor of the state of Andhra Pradesh, Shankar Dayal Sharma. Makhan's name was included in a hit list published by the People's Union for Democratic Rights, under the title "Who are the guilty?" The list charged various Indian leaders with violence against Sikhs.

Aug. 1: Moderate Sikh leader Harchand Singh Longowal escapes by seconds an armed attack by the All-India Sikh Student Federation, as he prepares to speak at the Golden Temple. Longowal had signed an accord with Prime Minister Gandhi one week before, ending the Akali Dal (Sikh party) support for an independent Punjab.

Aug. 3: A planning meeting to kill Rajiv Gandhi is held in Hamilton, Ontario. Among those involved, directly or indirectly, are Balbir Singh Nijjar and Darsan Singh Saini of Toronto; Kuldeep Singh of Detroit, Michigan; and Surtjit Singh and Talwinder Singh Parmar of Vancouver. A terrorist team is reportedly dispatched to India to strike Gandhi on his birthday, Aug. 20.

Aug. 5: World Sikh Organization spokesmen Uday Singh of Sudbury, and Darsan Singh Saini and Jaswant Pal Singh of Vancouver hold press conference in Toronto to take credit for the murder of Lalith Makhan on July 31.

Aug. 8: Delhi police file charges of plotting to overthrow the government against 58 Sikh terrorists responsible for a wave of transistor radio bombings in Delhi in May which killed 84 people.

to Montreal. Arms caches in Montreal are supplemented by a flow of arms originating in Detroit, Michigan, and reaching Montreal via Windsor and Toronto, Ontario.

From Montreal, these arms are then shipped to Sydney and Glace Bay, Nova Scotia on the remote Cape Breton Island. From Sydney, the arms are put aboard Greek and Irish ships bound for South Asia. The final details of these shipments are reportedly overseen by the above mentioned Brig. Palminder Singh, a resident of Sydney, Nova Scotia, since 1975.

One of the leading figures in this entire smuggling and terror network is one Col. (ret.) Yoram Hamizrahi, formerly of the Israeli Defense Force and now resident in Winnipeg, Manitoba. A Mossad specialist on Central and South Asia, Hamizrahi served as the commander of the Israeli army in Southern Lebanon between 1976 and 1980. During this time, he was also the official Israeli army liaison to Col. Sa'ad Haddad and his Southern Lebanese Army. During this same period, Hamizrahi was the unofficial liaison to the terrorist Shi'ite al-Aḥmal in Beirut.

Following employment as a BBC correspondent in Lebanon, Hamizrahi emigrated to Winnipeg, where he established a security intelligence consultant company and opened up shop with Canada's Sikh terrorists.

Together with his wife, who has written profile studies on the Canadian Sikhs, Hamizrahi was instrumental in assisting the "marriage" of the Sikhs in Canada to Islamic terrorist networks from Pakistan, Iran, and Lebanon, among other locations.

Despite Hamizrahi's deployment to Canada, he has remained close to Rafi Eytan, formerly director of Mossad covert operations in Western Europe. Not so coincidentally, Eytan (a.k.a. "Dirty Rafi") was the replacement appointed by the Israeli government in 1977 as the Prime Minister's Office's Advisor on the Warfare against Terrorism, as that position was evacuated by General Ze'evi when he left for Ecuador. Eytan, a protégé of Gen. Ariel Sharon, is part of the Mossad faction which strenuously promotes Islamic terrorism as a pretext for Israeli expansion, including aiding the Shi'ite terrorists of Iran and Lebanon.

One reflection of the now completed integration of Sikh and Islamic fundamentalist terrorists, was the July 4-7 Toronto conference of the "Islamic Circle of North America," which drew over 1,000 representatives—including key terrorist representatives of the Sikhs separatists. Among the major delegations at the meeting were the Shi'ites who had just hijacked TWA Flight 847 on June 14, the Sikhs who bombed Air India Flight 182 on June 23, and at least two Afghanistan guerrilla movements.

Among the key figures who addressed the conference were Abdul Almott'al Jabri, a top leader of the Muslim Brotherhood of Egypt; Garuhar Ur Rahman, leader of the fundamentalist Jamaat-e-Islami parliamentary faction within the Pakistani National Assembly and Prof. Burhanuddin Rabbani, leader of the Jamaat-e-Islami Afghan guerrilla organization. Prominent attendees of the conference included Prof. Mohammed Ayoub of the University of Toronto, an Islamic terrorist controller and liaison with the Sikh representatives present.

Simultaneous with the conference, the Canadian government allowed the top Iranian terrorist controller, Ayatollah Zamani, to travel to Toronto with an eight-man delegation, nominally charged with preparing for the Canadian Shi'ites' then upcoming yearly pilgrimage to Mecca.

Among the items of discussion at the conference and related meetings with the Iranians held that week was the need for more explicit support of Khalistani separatism by Islamic terrorist networks. Another item was the massive expansion of Shi'ite and Sikh blind-terror actions within the United States.

How, one may ask, could such a terrorist gathering occur so openly? Primarily because many of the terrorists assembled there are themselves recipients of U.S. arms under the justification that Islamic fundamentalism is hostile to Soviet expansionism. Not coincidentally, the Mossad, which sold certain fools this KGB line with the assistance of Jon Speller, is today overseeing this arms pipeline.

Aug. 20: Sikh gunmen enter the home of senior Congress-I leader and former state legislator Gurdial Saini, chief of the party in Jullundur, critically wounding him. D.D. Kullar, a local Congress leader, is killed.

Aug. 20: Sant Harchand Singh Longowal is assassinated by two Sikh youths as he speaks in Sangrur, calling for Sikhs to support his settlement with the Indian government. The assassination is a major blow to efforts to return Punjab to normal.

Sept. 4: Arjun Das, Congress-I member of the Delhi Metropolitan Council, is shot dead at his office by three Sikh terrorists. Das had been closely associated with the late Sanjay Gandhi, Rajiv's brother. Das had not been included on the terrorists' "Who are the guilty?" hit-list, but was widely alleged to be responsible for anti-Sikh rioting.

Sept. 14: Sikh terrorist leaders congregate in Buffalo, New York, reportedly to plan assassination of Rajiv Gandhi on his upcoming Oct. 22-25 visit to New York to participate in the U.N. 40th anniversary celebrations. Participants reportedly include: Surgit Singh of Buffalo, Gen. Jaswant Singh Bhullar of Washington, D.C., Karnail Singh Gill of Ottawa, Lakhbir Singh of Vancouver, Balbir Singh Nijjar, Darsan Singh Saini. Talwinder Singh Parmar is in nearby Hamilton, Ontario, on the same date.
