

NAWAPA, the North American Water and Power Alliance, will revitalize our productive economy and provide scientific challenges to stimulate our levels of technology and understanding. Through large-scale transformation of the Biosphere, weather, and atmospheric conditions, NAWAPA will allow mankind on Earth to begin interacting self-consciously with extra-terrestrial cosmic radiation, and improve the planet for a long time to come.

“If we don’t do this, we know what will happen. The Eurozone could collapse by Christmas, either by the default of the debt of Spain, the refusal of Germany and France to consent to the establishment of a “euro-bond,” Irish resistance to a bailout of British banks, or any number of other weak points; and this will set off a global chain-reaction collapse. We are already experiencing the effects of the cuts related to the bailout of this speculative debt in our cities across the nation. The Boston School Board voted last night to close or merge 18 schools, and 73% of cities and counties surveyed have reduced public health support in the last six months.

“Now is a time when we must rise to a new level as a nation; to take advantage of the crisis, to make even greater advances in our conception of economy. For these reasons, I am declaring my intent to run again for office in the 4th Congressional District of Massachusetts in 2012.

‘For Their Deeds Do Follow Them’

Dec. 18—Summer Shields, the former Democratic write-in candidate against Nancy Pelosi in the November 2010 elections, today issued the following open letter to the citizens of the 8th District of California (San Francisco), and beyond, in which he announced his new campaign for Congress.

Summer Shields’ write-in campaign against House Squeaker Nancy Pelosi let voters in California’s 8th CD know that there was an alternative: Now, he intends to press for victory.

Dear Citizen,

Do not let that horrible aftertaste in your mouth, caused by the recent mid-term election, become the pessimism that creates your own self-inflicted doom. Pessimism under these circumstances of economic collapse and war is not only the most deadly response to this misfortune—it is downright suicide! If you are wise, you don’t fight for your immediate self-interests; you fight for the beautiful future that you may never even experience yourself.

The story is told that a quartet of string players working through the last compositions of Beethoven, in his presence, came to a stop partway through a piece, and when the now-deaf composer looked up from conducting, and saw that they had stopped, they told him that they could not continue, for they did not understand what they were playing. He responded: “It is no matter, keep playing, for I composed these pieces not for the present, but for a future age.”

Today, the fight we must wage is simple and clear—yet, it is one of the most difficult things to do, precisely because it contains within it that same principle of the future that Beethoven lived for.

The first step: Get rid of this stinking British monetary system once and for all, by reinstating Glass-Steagall. Clean out our banking system by simply tossing out the worthless debt in the form of speculative derivatives, and return, once and for all, to Alexander Hamilton's national credit policy, upon which our U.S. Constitution is based and our fate currently hangs.

Step number two: I propose that we go big, with the biggest science-driver project that were ever embarked on by man: the North American Water and Power Alliance (NAWAPA). Not only will we create a minimum of 4 million new jobs, we will change mankind's conception of himself. Don't you think your children deserve a real future? Let's take today's "no future" generation, those poor, unskilled young people, who live most of their lives either in cyberspace or out on the streets, and give them something worth living for, by training them for this kind of mission in a Franklin Roosevelt-style Civilian Conservation Corps (CCC).

Step three: We are not going to do it all alone. Don't think that other nations don't want this exact same future—they do! We will reach our hands out across the Pacific, where the nations of China, Russia, and India are already engaged in some of the most technologically and scientifically advanced projects, including a full-scale nuclear renaissance, new space programs, and the development of the interior of the continents through rail and transformative water management projects. The European nations across the Atlantic will be invited to join in this prosperity as well.

Now here is the catch: In order to accomplish any of this, that psychotic narcissist Barack Obama must be removed from office, using the 25th Amendment.

It is for these reasons, because there exists no competent understanding of leadership within the general public, that I am announcing my candidacy for the Democratic nomination to the U.S. Congress in 2012, against that squeaker of the House Nancy Pelosi. Only this time, I will be on the ballot. On top of that, the two other LaRouche Democrats who ran for Congress in the last election, Kesha Rogers and Rachel Brown, will be joining me once again.

I know that it is not easy, especially during these times, to stand up to popular opinion and to the demoralization of your fellow citizens, especially when you are standing up to fight for a future that you may not experience within your mortal life. However, it must be done. I am willing to take up this fight and so should you.

Cowardice and pessimism is a fate worse than death.

Obama Tax-Cut Swindle Triggers Dem Revolt

by Edward Spannaus

Dec. 20—In what many now see as a sharp turning point in the breakup of Barack Obama's Presidency, the corrupt tax-cut deal that the President worked out with Republican leaders behind the backs of his own party, has triggered a revolt among Democrats, bringing to the surface the accelerating disillusionment over Mr. "Change You Can Believe In."

Even more important, is that both the substance of the tax-cut bill—including its deadly assault on the Social Security Trust Fund—and the process by which it came about, show how Obama's British controllers expect him to govern over the next two years, by adopting wholesale the dictatorial "Unitary Executive" methods to which the nation was introduced by Dick Cheney and George W. Bush during the past decade.

Rangel Sounds the Alarm

Rep. Charles Rangel (D-N.Y.), the former chairman of the House Ways & Means Committee, the body which is charged with carrying out the U.S. Constitution's requirement (Art. I, Sec. 7) that all revenue bills be initiated in the House of Representatives, captured the essence of Obama's treachery, in a speech on the House floor on Dec. 16.

"Tonight is going to be a rather historic vote. In the old days, the House would initiate tax bills, and then we would send it to the Senate, and then the Senate and the House would come together and have what was known as a conference," Rangel stated. "But it's clear to me that rules are changing fast... Now it works that the President works with a handful of Republicans and tells us, on the House side, that if we change anything, there's absolutely no deal..."

"In addition to that, we find that all of the tax benefits seem to be centered among the people who are the richest that we have in this country, while we find more and more Americans going into poverty. I submit to you, that democracy cannot grow with this type of di-
