

Step Number One: Impeach Obama

On Aug. 24, 2011, Lyndon LaRouche delivered an urgent message, titled “The Path to Survival: LaRouche’s Seven Necessary Points for a Real Recovery,” on LaRouchePAC-TV, a seven-point program for addressing the general breakdown crisis now engulfing the North Atlantic region. Here is an excerpt, on why point number one is removing President Obama from office. (See EIR, Sept. 2, 2011 for complete transcript.)

The subject today is the discussion of the imminent crash of the trans-Atlantic part of the world system, and the implications of that for this time. Now, first, the crash itself: We’re on the verge of a crash, all except the last piece where somebody pulls a piece out, and the

Sam Vaknin, author of Malignant Self-Love, is interviewed in a 46-minute LPAC-TV video, on President Obama’s narcissistic personality disorder, a condition which Vaknin says is increasingly controlling the President’s mental outlook. Agreeing with Lyndon whole thing comes tumbling down. Or else, there’s an alternative, which might be enacted in the meantime. The meantime is in any case a fairly short meantime, and everything is set, right now, to go.

Now, in addition to this point, there are seven other points, which have to be covered, and I’ll cover them in summary form for the purpose of discussion, but these seven points are crucial, and are probably the only possible solution for the present threat of a general breakdown crisis of, first of all, the trans-Atlantic system. That is what’s coming on immediately; such a breakdown in that system would mean the Asian system as well, would go tumbling down, after the trans-Atlantic system had tumbled first, and we’re on the verge of that right now.

The crash will occur, if not earlier, at the moment that Obama does something foolish which triggers the whole blowout: He’s getting more and more in the mental state, as has been noted by a number of commentators and others. . . .

So the first thing you have to do, if you want to save the world economy now, is you have to kick out Barack Obama as President of the United States. All the conditions, preconditions, for that are there: For example, Obama recently had launched a war in Libya, in violation of the U.S. Constitution. He had done this past the point of permission for a President to take emergency action. He defied that time limit; therefore, he is impeachable immediately.

He is also impeachable on conditions of the 25th Amendment, under Section 4, as being clinically insane, as defined by that 25th Amendment and its provision 4.

So, he can be removed. And if we don’t remove him in time, then anyone who doesn’t remove him shares guilt for the greatest crash that the Western Hemisphere has ever seen, and Europe, too.

So, no more time for fools playing games. Obama must be thrown out of office, because, unless he is thrown out of office, then, the system will crash. And there will be nothing for the nations of the trans-Atlantic community to look forward to, except Hell. Therefore, he must be removed first, so that he’s not able to jam up the passage of a Glass-Steagall reenactment on the basis of the same principles as Franklin Delano Roosevelt’s action in signing in the original Glass-Steagall Act.

That’s number one: the crash. The elimination of Obama, and the Glass-Steagall Act, in that succession, must be done.
