The Political Objectors

The practiced idiocy among all too many of our recent Presidencies, as since the death of a great President such as President William McKinley, through the subsequent two World Wars, and beyond the choice of the Vietnam War and its sequels, demonstrates my concern beyond any actually reasonable doubt. Witness the miserable failure of the Presidency under President George H. W. Bush, the worse obscenities of, successively, President George W. Bush, Jr., and, worst of all, this far, President Barack Obama.

It has been particularly notable, most recently, that the soaring and sauntering hyperinflation under Presidents George W. Bush and Barack Obama, have brought us all to the presently very brink of a simmering threat of a global trans-Atlantic genocide, all according to, presently, the Anglo-Dutch imperium aimed brutally at a reduction of the human population from seven billions, to quickly one billion persons (or less), all that according to the currently still-stated global policies of Queen Elizabeth II. Those cases exemplify such immediately current, onrushing trends into global genocide, even toward terminal human extinction wrought by thermonuclear warfare on an approximately global scope.

For us, in the United States, we are, apparently (I stress “apparently”) currently experiencing a presently accelerating, plunging decline of the mere means of existence, which has now has reached a point of crisis now brought to bear immediately under the disgracefully fading reign of President Barack Obama. Should President Obama be dumped, now soon, that should be—must become—accompanied by an intended rescue of not only our United States, but much of civilization in general.

Such a fortunate occurrence should be a basis for a general recovery of our United States (in particular), and also other nations which participate in such an intention. However, the upward turn will begin as a “very tough
