

British Monarchy's Green GLOBE Genocide Summit Busted Up in Mexico

by Gretchen Small

June 14—Unfortunately for the British Crown, the LaRouche Movement in Mexico decided last week that they, as Mexican patriots, could not stand quietly by and allow the Global Legislators Organization for a Balanced Environment to hold its Second World Legislators Summit in the Mexican Chamber of Deputies on June 6-8 unchallenged.

GLOBE, as the organization is known, has the self-proclaimed mission of lining up parliamentarians and congressmen from every nation in the world to march in lockstep behind the British monarchy's satanic doctrine that human activity destroys the planet, and so must be radically reduced.

GLOBE's Mexico City summit was planned as a critical step toward the British Crown's goal of establishing the green dictatorship, which eluded it at the 2009 Copenhagen UN Climate Change Conference, by the time of the next such conference to be held in Paris in 2015. The model which they are demanding all nations follow, is that of . . . Barack Obama.

GLOBE's Assignment

GLOBE was founded in 1989 at the instigation of the Queen's favorite Tony Blair, the inconvenient Al Gore, and then-Sen. John Kerry. It is headquartered in London. Its president from 2010-14, now honorary president, the Rt. Dishonorable John Gummer, Lord Deben, had been Prime Minister Margaret Thatcher's Minister of Agriculture, and went on, under Prime Minister John Major, to become the UK's longest-ever serving Secretary of State for the Environment, winning the dubious title from the BBC of being "the parliamentarian who did most for the environment internationally."

GLOBE's role was upgraded after the Crown was defeated at Copenhagen. The problem faced by the Queen, is how to outflank the recognition by key governments that the actual agenda at Copenhagen, was to get them to sign on to the genocide policy; that the proposed binding international agreement, to be supranationally enforced, would lead to the death of the billions of people left without food, power, water, or industry, if they agreed, as demanded, to tear down existing productive and potential new capability of their nations. China, India, Brazil, and South Africa led the developing-sector nations in refusing to sign on to what they rightly dubbed a "suicide pact" at Copenhagen.

GLOBE's post-Copenhagen mission is to recruit legislators to put through the desired suicidal climate legislation on a national level, without waiting for a global accord. By December 2010, GLOBE released its first annual "Climate Legislation Study," prepared for it out of hoaxster Sir Nicholas Stern's Grantham Research Institute on Climate Change and the Environment, at the London School of Economics. Lord Deben wrote that the idea behind the report on various climate change initiatives underway in different nations (restrictions on forestry and fishing, carbon emission reductions, etc.) was to "inject a real sense of momentum," and thus give "governments the confidence to go further and faster in the international negotiations."

The January 2013 summit in which GLOBE escalated this flank by launching its "Climate Legislation Initiative" was held at Her Majesty's Foreign Office itself.

LaRouche Movement Blows It Open

Mexico became a "significant" GLOBE success story, after a cross-party group of legislators rammed through a drastic, Crown-pleasing "General Law on Climate Change" in 2012. Thus, GLOBE expected smooth sailing, when its Second World Legislators Summit opened in the Mexican Chamber of Deputies. Instead, as Lord Deben was delivering his closing pep-talk to the 400 or so lawmakers attending from 80-plus countries, his speech was interrupted with loud calls from the press balcony at the back of the hall: "This is the new British imperialism!"; "Mexico repudiates British imperialism!"; "Out with GLOBE!"

The LaRouche Movement of Mexico (Mocila) up-ended GLOBE'S Green-nazi event, by exposing its true purpose: to brainwash legislators to accept the British monarchy's doctrine that mankind is a pestilence. Here, Mocila's Carolina Domínguez challenges the speaker, Lord Deben.

The LaRouche Citizens Movement of Mexico (Mocila) had struck. The conference froze as the organizers began singing Verdi's famous patriotic chorus, Va, pensiero, leafleted the press, and dropped several hundred copies of a Mocila leaflet to the delegates below, warning them, in Spanish and English, that GLOBE is "The New Face of Fascism."

"Members of Congress of any nation should be ashamed to belong to such an immoral organization, or any such organization opposed to progress and in favor of depopulating the planet," the Mocila leaflet admonished (see below for full text).

With Lord Deben yelling from the podium in a decidedly un-lordly manner, that the challengers were "representatives of the past," responsible for "the felling of many trees," private security agents hired by GLOBE to police the highly secured conference violently dragged the organizers out of the hall, manhandling and bruising the women organizers, in particular. The display of excessive force shocked the national and foreign reporters present, and GLOBE's team began demanding their videocameras and cell-phones, and even verbally assaulted the director of information for the Chamber of Deputies' press office.

Mocila's charge of fascism resonated. The chorus of obsequious press praise that British "climate change" lords have come to expect from "the natives," was broken by a dozen or so stories in the Mexican media which reported on the arrogant, vicious response to the LaRouche movement's intervention, many identifying the actual issue raised by the organizers: that the green agenda is fascism. For example, Noticias de Veracruz and Hoy Noticia reported that "the demonstrators distributed propaganda titled 'The New Face of Fascism,' where they told the legislators ... that they should 'distance themselves from the neo-colonialist 'green' agenda of the supranational spokesmen and representatives of the British empire's foreign policy.'... What lies behind the policies disguised as 'mitigation and adapting to climate change' pushed by supranational environmental organizations, is what is known as 'Malthusianism,' their printed leaflet detailed."

Other press accounts focused on Mocila's charge that GLOBE "seeks to eliminate the concept and implementation of progress." As Quadratin.com reported, "the false guise of defense of the environment is used, while covering up their real purpose of eliminating sovereignty and the productive capacity of nations. 'For the oligarchy, the solution to the crisis is for most of the population to disappear,'"

Obama, the Hero

GLOBE had set out two primary objectives for the summit. The first was to induce more governments to put through binding national legislation which imposes drastic limitations on all forms of productive economic activity, in the name of preventing "climate change."

Despite the hype, their effort is not advancing without resistance. A GLOBE regional chapter for the Americas was announced at the summit, strengthening its already dangerous penetration of this region, but Lord Deben admitted in his closing remarks that the final resolution passed at the summit was “vague.”

The United States under Obama is their bright spot. President Obama’s actions to ram through the radical “decarbonization” of the U.S. economy by unconstitutional Executive dictate, with his EPA decrees against coal, was held up as the example which governments should emulate.

Notably, simultaneous with the summit, Obama, in a June 8 interview with the New York Times’ Thomas Friedman, touted the usefulness of “market pricing” for moving the climate change agenda forward.

Radical Green Monetarism

Which takes us to GLOBE’s second principal goal for their summit: to induce nations to incorporate “natural capital” accounting in all their budgeting and fiscal decisions. That is, to assign arbitrary monetary values to “ecosystem systems,” water, forests, soil, mineral deposits, sunshine, etc., so as to use market pricing and GDP accounting to make the utilization of so-called “Nature” prohibitively expensive. They argue that if nations exploit their forests or mines, for example, they should be deducting X-amount of “value” from their GDP, as “loss” of “natural capital”!

John Gummer, Lord Deben, president of GLOBE, who chaired the meeting, watched as security guards ejected and brutally manhandled the young women of Mocila. The organizers have filed charges.

Prince Charles’ “charity,” the Accounting for Sustainability Project, a “Let them eat cake!” program, demands that humans stop “engaging in excessive agriculture,” “over-fishing,” and exploiting “nature,” “without accounting for the damage.”

This shameless absurdity of assigning monetary values to the biosphere or lithosphere, distinct from their roles in human economic activity, is frankly an insult to any intelligent human being. GLOBE claims for example, in its natural capital promo video, that there are 63 million hectares of wetlands worldwide, and this is equivalent to $3.4 billion per year. How? Why? Don’t ask; accept!

GLOBE’s updated “Natural Capital Legislation” study unveiled at the Mexico summit, baldly asserts the premise which underlies all their lies: that “human activity has substantially degraded the natural environment.”

GLOBE’s accounting goal comes top-down from the British monarchy, Prince Charles being the personal patron of the “natural capital” accounting scam. The Prince set up a “charity” called the Accounting for Sustainability Project in 2004, which states that it is putting together public-private-NGO initiatives to stop the human race—with billions still starving—from “over-fishing,” engaging in excessive agriculture, and generally over-exploiting everything “without accounting for the damage.”

Charles promoted his accounting project, and the former Deutsche Bank derivatives banker Pavan Sukhdev credited with packaging the “natural capital accounting” scheme, as the central feature in his keynote address to the May 27 City of London “Inclusive Capitalism” hedge fund war council. He followed up a few days later, co-hosting the “Clean Energy Finance Summit” held June 3-4 at the UK Department of Energy (see “Prince Charles and the City Seek To Save Their System,” EIR, June 6, 2014).

Lunatic? Yes, but the perverse radical monetarism expressed in GLOBE’s “natural capital accounting” goal, is no different than the drive to include prostitution and illegal drugs in national accounts, as the Troika has ordered for the entire European Union by September. Underlying both of these measures, is the Satanic oligarchical view of humanity which Aeschylus portrayed in his immortal “Prometheus Bound.” Mankind is not the species uniquely capable of willful, creative development of the universe, thus responsible for ever-extending our dominion over that universe, but a plague to be killed.

The treatment of the African delegates to the Mexico City summit puts the point on the fact that, when the Crown’s minions assert human activity “degrades” the planet, they mean all human activity, whether powered by nuclear energy, fossil fuels, or even plain old wood: The African legislators reported that their nations are under attack for using firewood.

Inter Press Service reported in a June 9 wire that African legislators attending the summit came under attack for not being ambitious enough to meet the challenge of a changing climate. The case of the Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC) was cited. While the DRC is a gung-ho participant in the project to get nations to limit or prohibit use of national forests in exchange for cash (the “Reducing Emissions from Deforestation and Forest Degradation” [REDD+] scam), those limitations have not been institutionalized in “a legally binding framework.”

What does this mean in human terms? A legislator from the DRC attending the summit explained to IPS: “We need it [the forest] to feed our people, to get heat, to cook. You cannot tell your wife to stop using firewood and not provide an alternative source of energy.”

Nothing less than the dehumanization of the planet will satisfy this British monarchy, until it is banished from the Earth.

Mocila Charges GLOBE with Suppression of Free Speech

June 12—Three journalists who are members of the LaRouche Citizens Movement of Mexico (Mocila) yesterday filed a formal complaint before the Special Prosecutor for Addressing Crimes Against Free Speech, which is part of Mexico’s Federal Prosecutor General of the Republic’s office, charging individuals associated with the private security firm hired by GLOBE (Global Legislators for a Balanced Environment) with physical violence in removing them from a public meeting of GLOBE in the Mexican Congress on June 8, 2014.

When the Mocila organizers attempted to raise GLOBE’s role in the British monarchy’s drive to reduce the world population to 1 billion or less, at the GLOBE conference’s closing session, they were violently expelled from the meeting by security personnel, with three of the Mocila women being particularly roughed up, punched, scratched, having their blouses torn, etc.

Blanca Estela Pérez García, Laura Flores, and Carolina Domínguez filed formal complaints against John Gummer (aka Lord Deben), in his capacity as President of GLOBE and the person in charge of the three-day event, including chairing the closing session when the violence occurred. They also cited the names of the Mexican Congressmen who are members of GLOBE Mexico.

Officials of the Special Prosecutors office received the complaint; had a forensic doctor document the multiple bruises and injuries sustained by the three women; and advised the complainants that specialists from the prosecutor’s office would go to the Congress and interview witnesses and participants, as well as obtain other documentary evidence, such as video footage.

GLOBE: The New Face of Fascism

This leaflet by the Citizens' LaRouche Movement of Mexico (MOCILA) was distributed in both Spanish and English at the Global Legislators Organization for a Balanced Environment (GLOBE) conference in Mexico City on June 6-8:

The LaRouche Citizens Movement calls upon the legislators meeting in this hall to distance themselves on moral grounds from the neo-colonialist “green” agenda of the supranational organizations, spokesmen and representatives of the British Empire’s foreign policy, whose agenda is premised on an ideology created and promoted by imperial think-tanks going back to the infamous Thomas Malthus; organizations such as the World Wildlife Fund (WWF), founded by Prince Philip of Edinburgh<sup>1</sup> and Prince Bernhard of the Netherlands<sup>2</sup>, and the Global Legislators Organization for a Balanced Environment (GLOBE), an organization “founded on the initiative of former U.S. Vice President Al Gore<sup>3</sup> and Senator John Kerry, in 1989, to respond to the challenges of climate change.”

What drives this “urgent need” to combat “climate change,” are policies which, under the guise of environmentalist ideology, have been launched against nation-states, with the purpose of stripping them of their sovereignty by co-opting their institutional representatives, brainwashing them with talk of anthropogenic climate change, whose scientific validity is dubious, since there is still a debate on the real causes of those changes. There is simply no scientific evidence that CO<sub>2</sub> is responsible for climate change. There is only rhetoric reminiscent of Joseph Goebbels’ maxim: “Repeat a lie a thousand times and it will become the truth.”

On the pretext of “climate change” and “sustainability,” GLOBE, in its analysis of Mexico’s National Energy Strategy, 2013-2027,<sup>4</sup> dares to question Mexico’s prioritization of economic growth and energy inclusion: “The National Energy Strategy sent to Congress establishes two Strategic Objectives: 1. Viable economic growth for Mexico; and 2. Access to high-quality energy services for the whole population. The pivotal point of environmental sustainability is left out, giving priority to cost and economic growth.”

It is astonishing that a body made up of elected public officials would lament that a country decided to give priority to economic growth and that all its population should have access to energy. Since when is the goal of social progress a problem? Members of Congress of any nation should be ashamed to belong to such an immoral organization, or any such organization opposed to progress and in favor of depopulating the planet. Congressmen and -women should remember that they represent an institution which has true moral weight, the nation-state, which is based on the principle of the welfare of its citizens, which they promised to defend, rather than some supranational “body” following the orders of British colonialism.

Low Energy Density and Genocide

What lies behind the policies disguised as “mitigation and adapting to climate change” pushed by supranational environmental organizations, is what is known as “Malthusianism.” This has become state policy globally in two ways: 1. brutal campaigns against population growth; the premise was adopted that we ourselves are pollutants; and 2. policies that pressure nations to reduce their energy density by using “renewable energies,” making them incapable of meeting the basic necessities of energy, water, food, and jobs (inalienable human rights consecrated in many constitutions), and condemning us to a desolate future.

GLOBE is connected to “Natural Capital,” which in the document titled “Natural Capital of Mexico,” attacks Norman Borlaug’s Green Revolution which so benefitted Mexico, arguing that “the Green Revolution, whose effects permitted a notable increase in production; its environmental consequences, however, were very harmful because of the soil and water pollution generated by misuse of agrochemicals, and they are also inefficient energy systems.”

1. Who fervently wishes to be reborn “as a deadly virus, in order to contribute something to solve overpopulation.”

2. Card-carrying member of Hitler’s Nazi Party.

3. Whose mining interests, lifestyle, and inordinate enrichment from his “green” businesses relegate him to a very unacceptable moral level.

4. Notwithstanding the fact that the outlined energy policy is a smoke-screen, since the regressive energy reform hands over ownership of the assets upon which social development depends.

Facing the greatest food crisis that we have ever had, importing 50% of our food, these words sound like a death sentence for the millions of people who do not have food in our country. The only way to produce the food that we require is to build great infrastructure projects, such as the NAWAPA-PLHINO project, and reactivate the principles of the Green Revolution.

The New British Imperialism

These NGOs seek to eliminate the concept and implementation of progress which the world so badly needs at this moment of both financial and physical crisis. Under the guise of defending the environment, they hide their true intention: the elimination of the sovereignty and the productive capacity of nations. For the oligarchy, the solution to the crisis is for the majority of the population to simply disappear, using a campaign of merciless plunder of their resources based on the argument of “sustainability” and “green policies.” They convince nations not to make use of their own resources so that they don’t achieve their true potential; that is, old-style British colonialism with a “friendly” face.

What we have to do is not only produce a great quantity of energy, but also achieve a general dynamic of technological advance, based on rising energy-flux density. We must return to the idea that human beings are creative and have the ability to discover new laws and resources that break with the idea of limited resources.

We nations of the Americas do not deserve to have imposed on us green policies which damage human beings, with laws that limit growth and development, including even food production, because those who promote them argue that agriculture and livestock breeding harm the planet. This situation is already reflected in the climate change laws that the states of this Republic have approved, in order to meet the objectives of documents such as Agenda 21 and the Convention on Biological Diversity, which promote zero technological development, population reduction and impoverishment, and ecological reordering.

Mexico does not deserve this. Mexico deserves to grow, develop a flourishing agriculture to feed everyone, increase the use of nuclear energy, but above all, to be the author and architect of its own destiny, not a puppet of imperial forces, of greenie tin-hat princes who, from their thrones, would stop the progress of the continent and suck its blood for their own benefit.

Is de-carbonization good for the population? Should we return to rural primitivism, as some British foundations propose? Or do you actually agree with Jonathan Porrit, the scientific advisor of former British Prime Minister Gordon Brown, that it is necessary to reduce the population of England from 60 to 30 million people, because humans contaminate the environment by exhaling CO<sub>2</sub>? There are scientists, such as Dr. Eric Pianka, who in the name of “saving the planet,” propose to unleash a virus that will contribute to the elimination of 90% of the population. What groups will survive if these ideas are implemented? Let us remind you that the Nazis promoted a whole “scientific” theory about the supposed supremacy of the Aryan race.

Why should we listen to countries like Great Britain, which wish to de-carbonize the Americas? Should countries be the puppets of oligarchs such as John Selwyn Gummer, Lord Deben, the honorary president of GLOBE, who is also the director of the “sustainable” business enterprise Veolia UK, a clear conflict of interest?

We should tell the eugenicist oligarchs who promote their new empire in the Americas to get out, to stop promoting policies that corrupt the spirit of progress. Contrary to false scientific dogmas, we have the technology needed to transform this country, to build ecosystems and manage the planet’s environment for the good of mankind. History has shown us as much. Monarchs wish to have subjects; we democrats want citizens.
